

Colorado Legal Services – Volunteer Attorney Program
AUTHORIZATION FOR RELEASE OF INFORMATION
Clients Referred to Volunteer Lawyers

Client: _____

Case: _____

Colorado Legal Services (CLS) often asks volunteer lawyers to help our clients. If we refer your case to a volunteer lawyer, you will still be a client of CLS, and you will also be a client of the volunteer lawyer. This Authorization allows CLS and your volunteer lawyer to talk to each other about your case, and to share information and documents about your case with each other.

This includes:

- Talking about your case (including the facts and legal issues involved);
- Talking about your eligibility for help by CLS and your volunteer lawyer;
- Talking about any difficulties the volunteer lawyer has while working with you;
- Sharing information about the outcome of your case;
- Sharing copies of court papers or other papers such as letters, agreements, or contracts;
- Giving your volunteer lawyer help with your case, which could include providing sample documents or help from another lawyer, whom your volunteer lawyer may need to talk to about your case.

Why do we need to do this?

- The volunteer lawyer is working with you because CLS asked the lawyer to volunteer to help you.
- CLS supports the volunteer lawyers and wants to help them do their best work on cases.
- CLS also needs to know that its rules are being followed, including making sure that you are eligible for help.

Who decides what happens in your case?

- You, the Client, decide what action should be taken in your case (after talking to your volunteer lawyer).
- Your volunteer lawyer decides if the action you choose to take is (1) legal and ethical; and (2) helpful to you; and (3) related to the case that CLS referred to your volunteer lawyer. (Volunteer lawyers should not help you with legal matters that are not part of the case that CLS asked them to help you with.)
- CLS decides which cases to refer to volunteer lawyers. CLS may also decide to pay a small fee to the volunteer lawyer (at a greatly reduced rate) for the help the volunteer lawyer gives to you. If CLS pays the volunteer lawyer, CLS and the volunteer lawyer will have an agreement about the legal work CLS will pay for, but CLS will not decide what action to take – you, the Client, will decide that.

Who pays?

- You, the Client, will be expected to pay for the costs of the case, including court filing fees, serving papers on the other side of the case, office costs like copies and postage, etc.
- Volunteer lawyers do not pay any costs. They are giving their time and skills to help you.
- You, the Client, do not pay the fees to the volunteer lawyer; you only pay the costs. CLS pays the volunteer lawyer, if your case is sent to a volunteer lawyer on a reduced-fee basis.

Your right to complain

- You have the right to complain if you don't like the way your case is handled, by CLS or by your volunteer lawyer.
- You can also decide at any time that you want to stop getting help from CLS or your volunteer lawyer, but you must let CLS and the volunteer lawyer know that you want him/her to stop helping you.
- You can cancel this Authorization at any time. (But CLS and your volunteer lawyer may have to stop helping you if you do that.)
- This Authorization ends when your case is over and is closed.

I authorize CLS and my volunteer lawyer to share information, and I understand and agree to these terms.
